

STAGE INSPECTION *NEW BUILDS

Building can be both exciting and stressful experience

A stage inspection is a great option if you have concerns but not sure and would like an independent builder who can inspect on your behalf, some of our previous clients have employed us because they were not living in Queensland at the time their houses was under construction and just want us to report back as a 3rd party

Whatever the reason, whatever the stage of your build, you can have the confidence that your new home is being built at the quality you expect.

Clinton from Saurus Constructions can carry out your pre-slab, frame, lock up and handover inspections. We'll provide you with a professional and accurate report that ensures the quality of your build from beginning to end.
